What a wonderful blessing we received when Eddie was asked to perform a baby dedication for our first grand-baby before we left town to minister on the northwest coast! God is so good!

We pulled out of Albuquerque on June 17th to join in ministering with the northwest coast missionaries. We arrived in Boise, Idaho late on the 17th and the next day we had an awesome time of fellowship with all our missionaries. It was so wonderful to hear all their testimonies. What a devoted team of people. Richard and Mardie are doing such a great job leading and developing these men and women to be effective behind the prison walls in California, Idaho, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington. During the remainder of our three weeks in the northwest area we had a great time ministering to our congregation behind the prison walls and the great family of believers in several churches. We even found the opportunity to minister while at an IHOP restaurant. Eddie was asked to dedicate a grand-baby right there in the restaurant.

Please keep our former missionary; Berkley Jones, his wife Melanie, and his two children in your prayers. Berkley and his family relocated from Albuquerque to Colorado about 4 years ago. They had moved there to receive medical treatment for Berkley. He had been in remission from cancer until recently, when he was told that cancer cells in his brain had been found. We pray, in the name of Jesus that every cell in your body, Berkley, is healthy and strong. Amen.

Conviction is growing at such a fast rate and we are doing our best to prepare for future growth of this ministry. As the founders of Conviction, the board of directors felt that it was necessary for us to become part of the board. This past month the board of directors voted on and passed several proposals.

- Eddie became the president of Conviction for Christ Ministries upon receiving Pastor Boyd Harrell's resignation as active president.
- Sandi, David Cobb, and Pastor Boyd Harrell, were voted in as board members.
- Pastor Paul Lovato, was voted in as Treasurer.

Here is one of the great testimonies about one of our northwest coast missionaries “Shannon Bennett.” Shannon is a beautiful, dynamic woman of God. She has been an honorary clergy member for four years at Ada county jail. She spends 3 to 4 hours every day volunteering her time ministering to those who are waiting for their court date. Shannon not only visits the jail daily she will often go to a court hearing. She will pray for both the judge and the defendant and the outcome of the case. Shannon is loved and respected by both the inmates and the staff at Ada County. She is so loved, that one day she was too ill to make her daily visit, and the staff noticing that she had not come in, called her at home to check up on her. What a great ambassador of Christ and a wonderful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. What a great asset you are Shannon, to Conviction for Christ Ministries!

Love, Eddie & Sandi B.
