CONVICTION

Eddieb.net

Dear Sponsors,

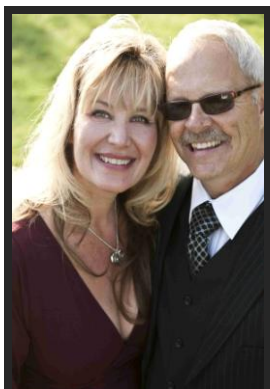

During the past two and a half months we have covered a lot of ground and have ministered in five states. It has been awesome to see thousands of lives changed and we are so grateful for each and every one of you. Through your financial support, you are the ones that have helped make things happen in this ministry. Without you, we would not be able to reach those behind prison walls. We believe that God honors your selfless sacrifices and we want to say, "Thank You" for keeping us on the road and reaching others for Jesus.

We ended the fall tour in Oklahoma. We experienced such a great spirit of excellence at "Tate Music Group." Eddie and Sandi had a wonderful time meeting and working with their staff and engineers. Next year's project "Altar of Exchange," is going to be a powerful CD.

It is a wonderful time in this ministry. We are growing faster than we ever imagined. With any growth there is always change, however. We are working hard to seize this opportunity to make changes that will compliment the vision of this ministry, which is to someday be in every prison in the United States. With this large of a vision, we will need your prayers, and we will also need more missionaries to help us accomplish this dream, so if you or someone you know feels called to do prison ministry, please have them contact us.

Our newest missionary, Bubba Woods, has just completed his ordination for the state of Georgia. If the name "Woods," sounds familiar it's because he is the son of our Senior Missionaries, Larry and Kelly Woods. Welcome to the team Bubba! We know that you are going to be a great asset to this ministry.

It is with deep sadness we are faced with releasing one of our board members and our Senior Pastor Richard and Mardie Engelhardt of the Northwest Coast. They will still be involved with us but they feel that they need to relinquish some of their responsibilities with Conviction. Richard started off as a host to Eddie and Sandi during the summer of 2008. Then in 2009 he became our first missionary. In January 2010 he became the Vice President for Conviction. Richard and Mardie have done such an incredible job with increasing our visibility in and out of prisons throughout the states of Idaho, Washington, Nevada, Oregon, and now California. He has grown the northwest coast from just himself to include 10 other missionaries. Richard and Mardie will be once again hosting Eddie and Sandi when they come to the northwest coast. Richard and Mardie we appreciate all your love, your friendship, and the numerous sacrifices made on behalf of Conviction. We love you and will miss you.
