CONVICTION

Eddieb.net

Dear Sponsors,

We are so blessed to have all of you! Thank you so much for believing in our vision and for giving so faithfully to our mission to reach the lost! It means so much to us and to those behind the prison walls. We are constantly hearing how much the men, women, and chaplains have enjoyed us coming in to see their facility and they are always expressing how much they look forward to our return. Thank you for making this possible.

This week I came across this saying and thought you might enjoy it. "God should always be working on us, because we haven't arrived yet." Yah! I really like this saying and I wanted you to know God is not done with you yet either.

We are still in the state of Georgia and have been ministering in several new places. One of the hot spots was at Christian Family Center where they have a ministry that houses about 140 men. It was one of the best shows Eddie has had this year. The men were so hungry for the Word. Eddie also had a great time ministering at 24/7 house. This is another great place that helps people get back on their feet. Eddie is hoping to be able to return back to both these homes next year.

There are some great things happening in the state of South Carolina. We were able to receive a state wide clearance. We also were able to add one more new unit to the several units that we usually do. Bryon is from South Carolina and he is getting ready to come on board with us. He will be under the leadership of Larry Woods who is based in Georgia.

We just got news from Tate Music Group, that they will be releasing the "Not Alone" CD to stores and other radio stations on Tuesday, November 19th. They are currently trying to decide on which song from the CD that they will release to the public.

You can now purchase a ring tone for the songs "Come On Home" or "Not Alone". You will find them on iTunes.

Eddie will be heading towards Louisiana soon. Larry has agreed to go with Eddie to help him in the prisons there. Thank you, Larry, Kelly, and the kids, for all your help during our time in Georgia. Larry's son, "Bubba," has been going into the prisons in Georgia and he has been such a great help.

The new workbook for Eddie's book, "Discipleship and Commitment" is now available free of charge on our website, "eddieb.net." There is also a certificate of completion that you will receive once you have completed the workbook.

Here is a great testimony from our missionary Larry Woods in Georgia.

"Thursday night, I went to Charles Webster Detention Center to lead a Bible study, and as I was leaving I went through the plan of salvation with the guys. After I was finished, one of the guys told me that he stayed for church to see what I was about because of the way I looked, and ended up getting saved. Then as I was leaving, one of the guards stopped me and asked me to pray for him and his family. It's exciting to see God work not just in the lives of the inmates, but in the lives of the officers as well. It's such an honor to be a part of Conviction and doing the work of Jesus."
