June 2014

Dear Partners,

Eddie finally arrived home on May 10, after two and a half months on the road.

This tour was a powerful opportunity for ministry. We ministered in five states:

South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, and Texas. We were so glad to be able to spend some time with Larry and seven new Missionaries that have been added to the South Carolina and Georgia area. We look forward to great and mighty things taking place in those two states! Eddie and Sandi leave for Idaho and Oregon in June and will be ministering in churches and prisons in that area through both June and July.

This past month, we had an awesome concert at "Legacy," which is our home church in Albuquerque. A special "thank you" to our wonderful Pastors, Steve & Cynthia Smothermon, and our church family. What a wonderful and fruitful evening we had, thank you for all your love and support.

Update on the Discipleship Center: we have enough money now for the concrete and the plumbing. We are still raising the money for the actual building, and from now until October, we'll be concentrating on raising the needed finances for the Discipleship Center. When we played at Legacy Church in Albuquerque, we were blessed with several contractors that want to come and help us. Praise God, some of the contractors have generously offered to do the work for free! We thank you Partners, for keeping this project in prayer!

Eddie and Sandi appeared on Spectrum Daily, an Alpha-Omega Broadcasting Production, on 5-12-14. You can view the program with Eddie and Sandi at <http://youtu.be/OXX-NM42xso>
Their segment of begins about 14 minutes into the program.

Here is a testimonial from a young lady in Georgia.

While ministering in Georgia we had been asked to go for breakfast with this young lady. During our visit, she told us that she had wanted Eddie to talk to her dad who had been in prison for 2 years. She then asked us if we had ever been to that prison. We told her that we hadn't. She then asked if we had been to another prison that her dad had been in for just one week. We had done this prison in March. Then she told us that during a visit with her dad, he began to tell her that he had seen some guy that came to the prison and preached through music and word. What a small world and a big God! It was our ministry that had been there and he went to Eddie's concert and got saved. What a testimony about the power and timing of God! It was so awesome to see this young girl's face light up when she said that her daddy got saved! I want to say thank you again to all of our sponsors. Because of you, we are able to go and preach the gospel behind the prison walls, and a little girl got her daddy back!

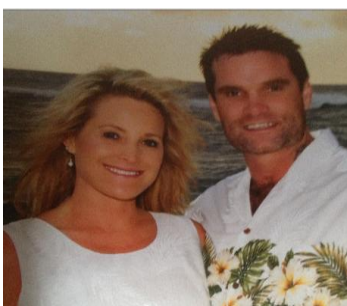

In His service behind the walls, Pastors Eddie & Sandi B
