

CONVICTION

September 2014

Dear Partners,

It is a very exciting time for Conviction for Christ Ministries. Since March 1st, we have been in Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, Idaho, Oregon, Nevada, California, and now we are in Texas.

California

The song “Altar of Exchange,” is exploding all over the US, Europe, Asia, and India. We are so blessed that God is giving us an opportunity to reach people in other countries for Christ through our music. Thank you for your prayers!

We raised $3,600 for Larry through the enchilada dinner event, which Larry is now using for the work of the ministry. We are so blessed and so grateful for everyone that gave towards this project. A special “thank you” to Pastor Ray and Christie, for allowing us to use their facility called “The Building”, we would also like to thank Rusty at Augusta Rescue Mission, for letting us use some of the guys from the home and their commercial kitchen. We would also like to thank Ken & Donna Horowitz. Together, Ken & Donna organized the operation, raised and delivered the food donations (except for the green chili, which was from Hatch, New Mexico) and helped us cook. We could have not accomplished this without everybody’s help. Thank you so much!

The Discipleship Center account has enough money right now to do the concrete and the plumbing. We still need another $30,000 for the building. Please keep this in prayer as we would like to begin to build the Discipleship Center by January of 2015.

In the future we would like to add two more people to the Board of Directors. We believe that we now have one person to add to the Board in February of next year, but we still need one other person. Please keep this in prayer for us.

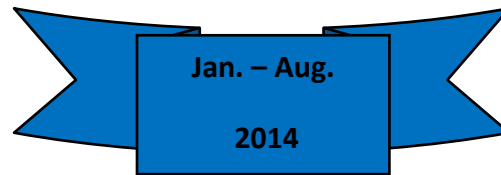

Eddie is currently preaching a message called “Getting Past the Rocks.” The scripture he expounds on is Mark 4:3-9. It's a powerful message. The message is about how trees actually grow and produce fruit in lava rock in Hawaii, and how we are to be fruitful, even in the rocky places in our life.

A note from an inmate: "Thank you both for the wonderful program last night at Ramsey. I loved it. More importantly, the men loved it! ...You poured some great music out on us my brother.... I hope you will come back to see us again soon."

We want to say “thank you,” to everyone who supports and prays for this ministry. May the Lord truly bless you for all that you give both monetarily and of your own time and resources, for those who are not able to tell you what a difference you are making in their lives.

*In His service behind the walls,
Pastor Eddie & Sandi B*
