

CONVICTION

February 2015

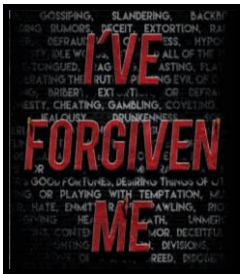

Eddieb.net

Dear Partners,

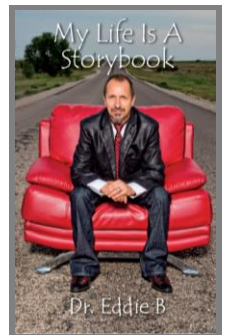

Let's get ready for 2015! We have a brand new year of opportunity before us to serve the Lord, to share the gospel, and to see Jesus set people free!

We are busy putting together the tour schedule for this year, and we will be leaving Albuquerque on February 18th. We will be traveling to North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, and Texas. Please keep us covered in prayer as we do some extreme traveling to reach the souls of men.

We have scheduled to bring all of Conviction's missionaries to Albuquerque on February 6th and 7th for the annual Board of Directors and volunteer meeting. Please keep us all in prayer as we meet to plan for the future of Conviction.

Sorry this newsletter is coming to you so late. We had deadlines that had to be met so that Eddie will have his new CD and His new book for you when he heads out next month. We are excited about Eddie's new CD called "I've Forgiven Me," and his new book, "My Life is a Storybook." The song, "I've Forgiven Me," will be released at the end of January, and both the album and the book will be released in early 2015. Watch your mailbox during the first week of February for the new CD!

Please also keep Sandi in prayer as she works on her new CD. She will begin working with producer Josh Dougan soon.

Don't forget that you and your friends can still sign up for "Constant Contact." It's an excellent way for us to update you when we're on the road. Just text "eddieb" at 22828, and then give us your email address. You will be added to the email list, and then will receive the Conviction Newsletter as well as updates from the road.

We want to thank all of Conviction's missionaries, volunteers, and all of our supporters, for standing with us in service to Christ! This ministry is able to do the things that it does only because of your giving. Thank you again for believing and for helping reach the people who are behind the walls. God bless you all.

Forgiveness sets us free.

Have you forgiven you?

With this newsletter you should have received you 501c-3 contribution letter for 2014. If for some reason our information does not match your contribution, please contact us and let us know.
